

Quiz Chapters 4 & 5, Session 7

Questions 1 – 21 are definitions of a term or an acronym of an agency. The terms and Acronyms are listed below. Match the correct “letter” from the terms to the definitions. Note that some terms may be used more than once.

1. This type of device is usually planted in a company computer by a disgruntled employee and set to go off with an internal trigger, like a date or the deletion of an employee number. _____
2. These types of devices are used to restrict access to areas and computers by reading an individuals fingerprint, handprint, photo or retina. _____
3. This is the Agency responsible for screening people and luggage at the airport. _____
4. With this software device, a hacker can obtain control of your computer. _____
5. When this type of virus invades your computer, it multiplies itself until you computer can no longer operate. _____
6. Colleges and Universities must adhere to this federal law for Campus Security that was enacted in 1990. _____
7. The term used for placing security devices and impediments between something of value and an offender. _____
8. Policies and activities that address identified vulnerabilities in and effort to prevent or mitigate threats. _____
9. Starting with walled fortifications, humans have used the concept of _____ security.
10. This type of monitoring will reduce the total number of security personnel needed to cover an area. _____
11. This term is used by owners to describe the loss of retail goods after their delivery to the store. _____
12. Information Security is the process of ensuring the _____, _____, _____, & _____ of information.
13. A computer network established to provide communication within a limited physical area. _____

14. A string of malicious software that attaches to a program or file. _____
15. This term refers to radio frequency identification. _____
16. A Countermeasure used to prevent unauthorized individuals from reading an e-mail or other communication. _____
17. This is the equivalent of a perimeter fence or wall around the network or computer. _____
18. Software that enables a network administrator to determine the types of activities in use on a particular computer. _____
19. A secure connection between remote users or networks. _____
20. A program that allows an employee to hide a file inside an image without distorting the appearance of the image. _____
21. TSA Agents use this Computer Assisted Passenger Prescreening System. _____

- | | | |
|-----------------------|--------------------|----------------------------|
| A. Biosafety | J. Accuracy | S. Spyware |
| B. Capps II | K. Authenticity | T. Trojan Horse |
| C. Central monitoring | L. Availability | U. Virus |
| D. Clery Act | M. Biometric | V. Worm |
| E. Layering | N. Confidentiality | W. Steganography |
| F. Perimeter | O. Countermeasure | X. Local Area Network |
| G. RFID | P. Encryption | Y. Virtual Private Network |
| H. Shrinkage | Q. Firewall | |
| I. TSA | R. Logic Bomb | |